1. Use the 2011 Statistical Abstract of the United States to answer this question.

Between 1980 and 2008, per capita (per person) consumption of whole milk:

A. Increased
B. Decreased
C. Remained steady

2. Use the March 19, 2010 issue of CQ Researcher to answer this question.

One of the gray-shaded articles discusses a group that was formed as an alternative to the Tea Party. The group is known as the:

A. Mead Party
B. Egg Nog Party
C. Coffee Party

3. Use Academic Search Complete to answer this question.

A 2007 magazine article discusses a group whose goal is to lower the legal drinking age and create a mandatory alcohol education program where teenagers would earn a "license" to drink. In what publication did the article originally appear?

A. Newsweek
B. Rolling Stone
C. Time
D. U.S. News and World Report

4. Use CQ Public Affairs to answer this question.

A 2009 legislative analysis discusses biochar as a possible means of:

A. Reducing carbon emissions into the atmosphere
B. Powering motor vehicles
C. Absorbing hazardous waste spills
D. Lessening the amount of agricultural runoff going into streams and rivers

5. Use Lexis Nexis Academic to answer this question.

According to a 2008 National Public Radio (NPR) transcript, which state considered fining people who were caught "text walking"?

A. Georgia
B. Illinois
C. Indiana
D. New York
6. Use the May 17, 2010 issue of CQ Weekly to answer this question.

Who proposed a bill that would withhold federal highway funds from states that do not ban the sending of text messages while driving?

A. Sen. John McCain (R-AZ)
B. Sen. Al Franken (D-MN)
C. Sen. Charles Schumer (D-NY)
D. Sen. Scott Brown (R-MA)

7. Use THOMAS to answer this question.

The THOMAS home page includes a link to:

A. State legislature web sites
B. White House
C. WikiLeaks
D. State Department

8. Use State and Local Government on the Net to answer this question.

Which U.S. state has an agency called the “Department of Livestock”?

A. Colorado
B. Montana
C. Oklahoma
D. Wyoming

9. Use USA.gov to answer this question.

USA.gov offers access to a White House app for:

A. Android
B. Blackberry
C. IPhone

10. Use the Political Advocacy Groups web site to answer this question.

The organization called “The Campaign for America’s Future” is listed under:

A. Corporate Accountability
B. Education
C. Environment (General)
D. Voting & Elections